LOOKING AHEAD

- GoPasco Public Transit registered all staff (109) as BOTL trained and expressed interest in showing the BOTL refresher video and/or launching a victim-centered poster campaign.
- BOTL is partnering with the Center for Urban Transportation Research at the University of South Florida and the Florida Department of Transportation to develop human trafficking reporting templates/protocols for transit providers.
- The American Gaming Association is committed to partnering with BOTL for additional statewide bus & casino Coalition Builds in 2023.

ATTENDEE FEEDBACK

"Hopefully the heightened awareness will help me be more attentive and observant for behaviors that are red flags." -Mark Branson, Lamers Bus Lines Inc.

"This presentation informed us about human trafficking through the lenses of the transportation and gaming industries, so there was a lot of new information to learn." -Janet Ortenzo, Southwest Florida Coalition Against Human Trafficking

"The survivor portion was very impactful. I will definitely be on the lookout." -Survey Respondent

"Great presentation from the speakers and the victim." -Carlos Cabrera, FDOT Maintenance Project Manager II

"The survivor's incredibly powerful and sad presentation of her experience reminded me yet again that we all need to pay attention and look out for one another! And then when we do see something that's not right, we must know how to report it to get the victim(s) help." -Survey Respondent
