

JANUARY 24, 2024

TAT teamed up with the San Joaquin County District Attorney, the San Joaquin Family Justice Center and the San Joaquin County Human Trafficking Task Force to bring together key industry stakeholders in school transportation, transit and other transportation sectors, along with law enforcement and youth-serving organizations, for a Youth on Transportation Coalition Build. TAT Coalition Builds create pathways for strategic engagement as stakeholders come together to leverage their networks in the fight against human trafficking. At the event, TAT provided targeted action steps and free resources for attendees to use within their companies and agencies with a specific focus on protecting youth from trafficking and exploitation.

TAT has and will continue to follow-up with attendees from the Coalition Build in order to help facilitate lasting connections and build strategies for combating human trafficking locally.

San Joaquin County, CA IMPACT REPORT

EDUCATE EQUIP EMPOWER MOBILIZE

RON FREITAS
District Attorney
San Joaquin County

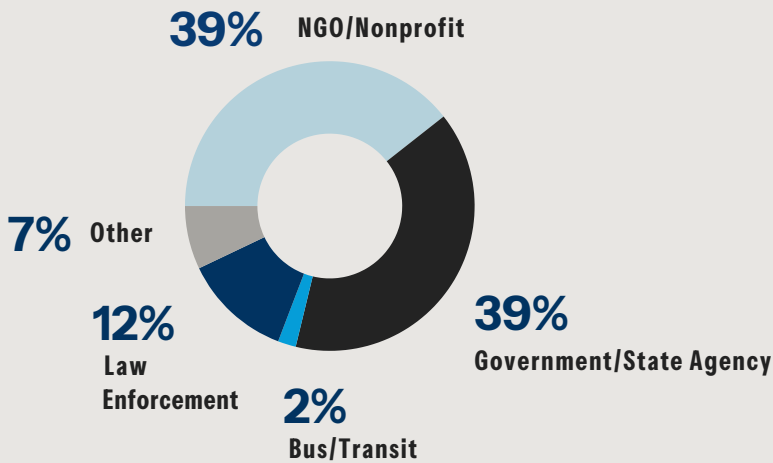

San Joaquin Family
Justice Center

San Joaquin County Human Trafficking Task Force

ATTENDEES

IMPACT BY NUMBERS

- 95% of respondents said their knowledge about human trafficking increased.
- 79% of respondents said they were better prepared to identify human trafficking.
- 95% of respondents said they would recommend attending a briefing like this to others in their field.
- 79% of respondents said they know what next steps to take in order to combat human trafficking.

“

“Thank you for all the powerful information that was shared today. Together, we can bring more awareness to our communities to help those victims and help others not become victims!”

Coalition Build Attendee

”

IMPACT IN ACTION

Coalition Builds inspire leaders from trucking companies, truck stops, bus companies, public transit agencies, energy companies, transportation associations, government agencies and law enforcement agencies to act, while equipping them with the practical tools they need to become force multipliers in the anti-human trafficking movement.

Since the San Joaquin Coalition Build:

- ✓ San Joaquin County Office of Education will share information about TAT's school transportation resources with all school districts.
- ✓ Linden Unified School District committed to implementing TAT training for their transportation staff.
- ✓ Tracy Transit has expressed interest in displaying victim-centered materials.
- ✓ The San Joaquin County Regional Rail Commission has committed to implementing training for employees and equipping train crew and station staff with TAT's transit wallet cards/app.
- ✓ San Joaquin County Office of Education and San Joaquin Family Justice Center are interested in hosting a follow-up virtual event with all attendees to continue the conversation and strengthen partnerships.
- ✓ Our co-hosts are continuing to work together, having partnered on several occasions, including events for Sexual Assault Awareness Month and National Crime Victims' Rights Week.