

CREATING LOCAL PARTNERSHIPS TO END HUMAN TRAFFICKING

January 15, 2026

10 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Knight Transportation
2002 W. Wahalla Lane
Phoenix, Arizona 85027

10:00

Welcome and Opening Remarks

- Sara Sefried, Director of Strategic Partnerships, TAT
- David Tillman, Senior Vice President, Safety, Risk and Driver Development, Knight-Swift

10:10

Human Trafficking 101: Understanding the Local Landscape and Industry Response

- Sara Sefried, Director of Strategic Partnerships, TAT
- Heather Fry, Director of Industry Training, TAT
- Heidi Chance, Special Agent, Office of the Arizona Attorney General

10:50

Multi-Disciplinary Panel Discussion: Collective Impact in Action

- Haleigh Wright, Assistant Attorney General, Office of the Arizona Attorney General
- Heidi Chance, Special Agent, Office of the Arizona Attorney General
- Steven Sekrecki, Sergeant, Arizona Department of Public Safety
- Natalie Papon, State Victims' Rights Education Administrator, Office of the Arizona Attorney General

12:00

Lunch

12:35

Insights From a Survivor

- Kelley Marshall, Training Specialist/Survivor Leader, TAT

1:00

Interactive Strategy Session: Driving Collaboration Forward

Facilitated discussion with audience participation

1:45

From Awareness to Action: Defining the Path Ahead

Group reflection and next-step commitments

Please plan to tour the Freedom Drivers Project, which will be open for tours before, during lunch and after the meeting.

SCAN HERE to participate in live polls and Q&A throughout the event.

