

TRUCK STOP EMPLOYEES: BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR HUMAN TRAFFICKING!

[www.tatnonprofit.org/
truck-stops](http://www.tatnonprofit.org/truck-stops)

LOOK FOR:

- People who seem to be under the the control of someone else (communication, movement, ID, money, choices, etc.)
- Cars that drop off a group of individuals in the lot and then park off to the side
- Individuals who are approaching trucks on the lot
- Women or minors who accompany a man into the area or another secluded spot
- An RV or van parked out by the trucks
- Solicitation for prostitution
- Someone exchanging sex for anything of value
- People who look frightened, uncomfortable, bruised/beaten or confused

Download the
TAT app:

TAKE ACTION:

If you suspect human trafficking or prostitution, whether an adult or minor, inform the manager-on-duty and call 911. Be sure to tell 911 you suspect human trafficking.

If you are talking with a suspected adult victim who wants help, call the National Human Trafficking Hotline to access services:

U.S.: 1-888-3737-888
CAN: 1-833-900-1010

INTERNAL REPORTING
Report suspected trafficking to: